The Access Corrections Service
An Access Corrections Secure Deposits User may send funds (the "Payment") to an Access Corrections Client (i.e. the correctional institution receiving funds on behalf of the inmate) in the United States over the Internet using a U.S. issued Visa or MasterCard credit card, or a Visa or MasterCard branded debit card (collectively "Bank Card"). Correctional facility staff has the authority to review, approve and reject all incoming payments. An Access Corrections Secure Mail User may send messages (the "Email") to an Access Corrections Client (i.e. the correctional institution receiving electronic messages on behalf of the inmate) in the United States over the Internet using a U.S. issued Visa or MasterCard credit card, or a Visa or MasterCard branded debit card (collectively “Bank Card”). Correctional facility staff has the authority to review, approve and reject all incoming messages. When required by applicable law, payments will be reported to federal, state or local authorities. You will be required to provide Access Corrections with certain information to allow us, among other things: to verify your identity; to receive appropriate Bank Card authorization; and any other information Client shall require to send the Payment or Mail. Please refer to Access Corrections Privacy Policy for information concerning Access Corrections use of this information.

Facility Access
User must agree that the correctional facility staff has the authority to review, approve and reject all incoming payments and emails delivered by Access Corrections. If facility staff deems an email inappropriate it will reject delivery of the email to the designated inmate. No refunds will be given for emails deemed inappropriate by facility staff. All users of Access Corrections must be aware that all information, including but not limited to, payment, email, name and address is accessible by facility staff for review and approval. All users of Access Corrections acknowledge that correctional facility staff has the approval to use any and all information transmitted through Access Corrections for investigative and legal purposes. Oregon Department of Corrections Users
The Oregon Department of Corrections restricts the contents of incoming and outgoing messages to inmates. Language that is sexually explicit is forbidden and will result in rejection of your message. Material that might cause a security concern or program concern is forbidden and will be rejected. Photographs displaying human genitalia or photographs capturing or promoting criminal activity will be rejected. These restrictions are based on criteria found in the Oregon Administrative Rule, Division 291-131, Rule on Mail (Inmate). You may find the Mail Rule by visiting the Oregon Department of Corrections website.

Fees
In consideration for the use of the Service, you agree to pay Access Corrections a fee for each Payment or Email sent by you at the applicable rate then in effect (the "Service Fee"). The applicable Service Fee for your Payment will be provided to you prior to your final authorization of the Payment, in addition to any applicable fees for additional services. All Service Fees are non-refundable.

Payment
Service Fees and the Payment amount are due and payable before Access Corrections processes the Payment or sends the Email. You must pay for the Service by Bank Card. If Access Corrections does not receive authorization from the card issuer, the Payment will not be processed and funds will not be transmitted to the Client and/or email credits will not be received. Each time you use the Service you agree that Access Corrections is authorized to charge your designated Bank Card account for the principal Payment amount, the Service Fee, and any other applicable fees. (Your agreement with your card issuer governs use of your card, and you must refer to that agreement to ascertain your rights and liabilities as a cardholder, which may include a “cash advance” fee.)
