

Maryland taxpayers spend approximately $288 million to incarcerate 7,794 people from Baltimore City. The burden of incarceration is disproportionately felt by some communities. The same communities that experience incarceration most acutely also have the greatest challenges serving their residents. Rather than spend millions of dollars to incarcerate people from each of these communities, the funds could, instead, be invested in education, workforce development, treatment, and housing services.

|  |                    |
|--|--------------------|
| Number of people in prison from Chinquapin Park/Belvedere   | 70          |
| Cost of incarcerating people from Chinquapin Park/Belvedere | $2,590,000 |

Challenges in Chinquapin Park/Belvedere

The challenges that Baltimore communities face contribute to a cycle of incarceration, poverty, and lost opportunity. Redirecting people and funds away from prison would help Baltimore City address these persistent challenges and barriers to the success of each community. Specific indicators of the challenges faced by this community include:

|   |        |                     |
|---|--------|---------------------|
| Population 16-64 not Employed (2008-2012)*  | 30.5   | %                   |
| Employed Population with Travel Time to Work of 45 Minutes or More (2012)           | 18.4   | %                   |
| Median Household Income (2008-2012)   | 42,853 | dollars             |
| Families Receiving TANF (2012)  | 7.3    | %                   |
| 9 th -12 th Grade Students that are Chronically Absent (2012) | 31.7   | %                   |
| Population (25 years and over) with Less than a High School Diploma (2012)          | 52.9   | %                   |
| Number of Narcotics Calls for Service per 1,000 Residents (2011)                    | 17.9   | calls               |
| Mortality Rate for 15-24 year olds (2012)   | 12.5   | per 1,000 youth     |
| Life Expectancy (2012)  | 74.9   | years               |
| Residential Properties that are Vacant or Abandoned (2012)                          | .7     | %                   |
| Children (aged 0-6) with Elevated Blood-Lead Levels (2012)                          | .0     | %                   |
| Violent Crime Rate  | 9.0    | per 1,000 residents |

Investments in Opportunity for Chinquapin Park/Belvedere

For what taxpayers spend on incarceration in Chinquapin Park/Belvedere, Baltimore City could invest in an array of programs and resources already available to help address community challenges.

|                                  | Cost per person | Number that could be served with $2,590,000 |
|----------------------------------|------------------------|---|
| Drug treatment for adults | $4,494                | 576 adults  |
| Employment training       | $5,000                | 518 people  |
| Housing (per month)       | $1,252                | 2,069 families                                      |
| GED course                | $1,000                | 2,590 students                                      |